TRINITY CONNECTION

JANUARY 5, 2024

Dear Beloved of Trinity,

I love music in a variety of ways. I love worship music. I love live concerts. I love YouTube videos. One thing that is common in the music world is the use of preludes. A prelude is an action or event serving as an introduction to something more important yet holding its own importance. A prelude serves its own role yet is most always connected to what comes after it.

So in worship, we hear Dawn, Joann or Gail play a music prelude as everyone enters the sanctuary. The music sets the mood for worship. At a concert, we hear a band or group prior to the headliner. Each of these preludes serves an important role yet is connected to what comes after it.

This week in scripture we read about John the Baptist who came before Jesus, proclaiming repentance and baptism. John is most definitely connected to what comes next. John is the prelude for Jesus.

John the Baptist was a gregarious, unorthodox preacher. He wore camel hair and ate locusts with honey. People may have regarded him as “unusual” yet there was something that drew people to him. That “something” was the good news that a Messiah was coming. John admitted he was not worthy of even tying his sandal.

For many in the first century, John was the one who introduced people to Jesus, the one who would baptize with the Holy Spirit.

Who is the person who told you about Jesus? Who was the “prelude” in your faith life? Jesus is the real deal. It is all about Him. John’s humble role was to point to the real deal. He set the example for us. We are to point to the real deal, also, through our words, deeds and actions. Be proud to be a prelude. It is an important role.

Blessings to you,
Deacon Christie.

6:30-8:30 pm
9 week course
in the Fellowship Hall

The Board of Stewardship is happy to offer ten full scholarships to members of Trinity for the Financial Peace University seminar. The class will meet for nine Sundays from 6:30-8:30 p.m. beginning on January 14 in the Fellowship Hall. At the first session, digital codes for the scholarships will be distributed. Call the church office to register or if you have questions at 605-498-2343.

Here is the description of the seminar from the Financial Peace University website:

When debt isn't holding you back, nothing can stop you from living the life of your dreams (yeah, that one you're thinking about right now). And here's the good news: You can get there. You just need a plan that works.

That's what you'll learn in Financial Peace University. FPU is the nine-week class that teaches you step by step how to pay off debt fast and build wealth for your future.

Stuffy financial class? Not here. FPU is full of energy, easy-to-understand lessons, and real-life examples of people just like you who have taken control of their money. And the best part? You'll experience the class with a group of people who will encourage you and hold you accountable every step of the way. That's what makes FPU so life-changing! In fact, the average FPU graduate is debt-free in two years or less!

Dave Ramsey's been teaching commonsense, biblical money principles for almost 30 years. And they work. Just ask the nearly 10 million people who've taken FPU and never have to worry about money again.

You're next. Ready?

In Financial Peace University, you'll learn how to:

- Take control of your money
- Attack debt with a vengeance and pay it off fast
- Save for emergencies
- Choose the right insurance plans
- Invest wisely and build wealth
- Give generously (the best part)

Mission Endowment Fund to Update Bylaws

We are fortunate to have various avenues at Trinity for financial gifts to be directed toward ministry. One of those ways is through our Mission Endowment Fund. The interest earned from gifts to this fund goes toward ministry projects at Trinity as well as in the Tea area communities and beyond.

At the congregation's annual meeting to be held on January 28, 2024, updated bylaws for the Mission Endowment Fund will be presented for consideration. Thank you to Kathy McHenry from Lutheran Planned Generosity in South Dakota, members of the Mission Endowment Committee, and members of the church council for input in this revision process. If you would like to view the proposed bylaws, you can pick up a copy at the Welcome Desk in the Gathering space.

If you have questions, contact the church office by calling 605-498-2343.

Hospitalizations / Life Changing Events

Did you know that the hospitals do not notify the church or pastor if a member has been admitted, even if you've been asked about your church membership upon arrival? Pastor Tom and Deacon Christie want to be there to support you or your loved one in a time of sorrow or joy.

Please notify the church when:

There is a hospitalization in your family.

There is a death in your family.

You would like a pastoral visit.

There is a birth or adoption.

Someone becomes home bound.

Someone becomes unemployed.

Trinity Lutheran Church, the body of Christ, wants to bring you Christ's love in all the seasons of your life. You may contact either Pastor Tom or Deacon Christie by calling 605-498-2343.
