TRINITY CONNECTION

OCTOBER 13, 2023

Dear Beloved of Trinity,

Many times when Jesus was preaching, he used parables to make his point. Sometimes the parables are easy to understand like the parable of the seed being scattered in good soil or poor soil. Other parables are difficult and confusing. Parables are not true stories; they are not literal interpretations. Instead they are meant as deeper truths, allegories and messages to surprise or “wake up” the listener.

This Sunday’s parable follows 2 parables about what the kingdom of God is like – it is like two sons, one who says no to the work of the Father but then changes his mind and one who says yes to the work of the Father then does not follow through. He followed it by the parable of the Wicked Tenants who kill the servants and eventually the son of the vineyard owner who came to collect what was his. Jesus is still speaking to those gathered which included chief priests, elders and other religious leaders. I would imagine each parable is more shocking and offensive than the last.

The parable of the Wedding Banquet recounts a king who invites the upper echelon of society to his son’s wedding but when all is prepared, the guests refuse to come. So the king annihilate them. Then in a loving fashion, he invites everyone. OK, the first part is odd as his reaction to his guests not coming is to wipe them out. Then the second part is odd because I wonder why he didn’t just invite everyone to begin with.

Historically, Matthew writes his Gospel about 50 years post resurrection to a largely Jewish community. He writes to encourage, comfort and guide the early believers who are divided amongst themselves about whether Jesus was the Messiah, all while still living under Roman rule. These parables he writes about seem to depict God’s rejection of those who do see accept Jesus as Messiah. So the invited guests in the parable seem to be the religious leaders and Jewish elite. The reject the invitation and face judgement. The second invitation is the welcoming of all people to the good news – the outcast, the non-Jews, the forgotten, etc. That is one interpretation and there are many. We’ll unpack this disturbing parable on Sunday and dig deeper into the unfailing grace of God extended to all of us as we continue to learn and grow together.

In love,
Deacon Christie

We will also have the Country Store for your favorite homemade baked goods, canning or crafts! There are many areas you can volunteer or you may make a monetary donation to help purchase supplies. Please note "Turkey Dinner" in the check memo line. The Country Store is also accepting donations of homemade baked goods, canning or crafts. Donations can be dropped off in the office. Signups are available in the Gathering Space.

Journey of Hope Donations

Donation Items for October: Toothpaste & Deodorant

"You are fearfully and wonderfully made." Psalm 139:14

Journey of Hope is a local non-profit whose goal is to provide basic hygiene products to those in need. Partnering with other local non-profits, they provide mental health, addiction and reintegration services, giving tangible hope. Trinity Lutheran is a collection point for this month's items of toothpaste and deodorant. Thank you for your generosity.

Trinity Library

Did you know that Trinity had a library? We have a wonderful collection of books by authors such as Jan Karon, Karen Kingsbury, Beverly Lewis and more. The library has been moved to the Lutheran Lounge. Anyone can take a book, read it and return it. Take some time to browse the shelves and find a good book.

WANTED: Cooking/Baking Class Leader

Do you have a old family recipe and have the art of making Krumkake, Gingerbread, Rosettes, Kolaches or Lefsa? Or are you talented in decorating Christmas cutout cookies? The Youth & Family Board is looking for that special someone with the talent that would be willing to show a small group during a holiday cooking/baking class. If this person is you, please contact Deacon Christie, any member of the Youth & Family Board (Laura Stewart, Deonne Portner, Deb Svanda or Kristi McKinney) or email the church office at info@teatrinity.org or call 605-498-2343.

October Food Pantry Donation: Grape Jelly

With the raising cost of food the Food Pantry has seen an increase in clients. Feel free to pick up an extra item or two when shopping to help those in need! In the month of October we will be collecting grape jelly. Donations can be dropped off in the Gathering Space. If you have questions or would like to make a monetary donation, please contact the church office or call Ruth at 605-321-7325.

Trinity Preschool enjoyed a fun field trip to Roger's Pumpkins, crafts and snacks!
